

1 ROLLOVER/TRANSFER REQUIREMENTS

In order to be eligible for a rollover/transfer, all of the below statements must be true.

- You must currently be a participant or eligible to be a participant in the AGFinancial 403(b) Retirement Plan (“Plan”).
- The rollover amount must be from an eligible plan and cannot include the following: Required minimum distributions; loans treated as distributions; hardship distributions; distributions of excess contributions and related earnings; distributions that are one of a series of substantially equal payments; withdrawals electing out of automatic contribution arrangements; distributions to pay for accident, health, or life insurance; dividends on employer securities; S corporation allocations treated as deemed distributions; or, nondeductible IRAs.
- Indirect rollovers cannot be from a designated Roth account or a traditional after-tax account of an employer plan.

2 GENERAL

WHO CAN ROLL OVER/TRANSFER FUNDS INTO THE PLAN?

You must either already be enrolled in the Plan or be eligible to enroll. Eligibility to enroll in the Plan requires holding credentials with the Assemblies of God or active employment with an approved ministry that uses AGFinancial as an authorized 403(b) plan service provider.

CAN I ROLL OVER OR TRANSFER AN INHERITED RETIREMENT ACCOUNT?

Only spousal beneficiary accounts may be rolled into your 403(b) account.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A 403(b) ROLLOVER AND A TRANSFER?

Rollovers typically occur when you change jobs or retire and move your employer-sponsored plan to the Plan. Transfers occur when you want to change your 403(b) plan provider and do not meet the qualifications for rollovers.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A DIRECT ROLLOVER AND AN INDIRECT ROLLOVER?

A direct rollover is when the distributing company transfers funds directly to AGFinancial for the benefit of the participant. An indirect rollover is when you cash out your account and receive a check made payable to you. A percentage of your total balance is withheld for taxes and will be considered a distribution if that amount is not included in the rollover. Indirect rollovers must be made within 60 days of receipt of a rollover from another plan, or you may be able to claim a waiver of the 60-day rollover period under the IRS self-certification procedure. If using the self-certification procedure, you must attach a signed IRS-approved Model Letter.

3 TRANSFER PROCESS

WHERE DO I START?

Complete an Incoming Rollover/Transfer Form for each account you are rolling over or transferring and include requested documentation. Mail original forms and copies of documentation to AGFinancial, PO Box 2515, Springfield, MO 65801-2513. All rollover/transfer checks should be made payable to MBA.

DO I NEED ANYTHING FROM MY CURRENT COMPANY?

Contact the company that manages your current plan to determine if a signature guarantee or other documentation is required to roll over or transfer funds to the Plan. You may also need to initiate liquidation instructions of certain investments.

HOW LONG DOES A ROLLOVER/TRANSFER TAKE TO BE COMPLETED?

Your rollover/transfer process can take up to five weeks for completion depending on the processing time of the company sending the funds. You will receive a confirmation letter from AGFinancial when the rollover/transfer funds are received.

WHAT ABOUT REQUIRED MINIMUM DISTRIBUTIONS?

If you are 73 or older, you are required to take any required minimum distribution before you roll over or transfer funds.

4 MISCELLANEOUS

HOW WILL MY ROLLOVER/TRANSFER BE INVESTED?

Rollovers/transfers are invested according to the election on file for new contributions. To make changes, download and complete the Investment Change Form located at agfinancial.org/retirementforms before your rollover is received.

ARE THERE ANY FEES ASSOCIATED WITH ROLLOVERS/ TRANSFERS?

There are no fees to roll over or transfer funds into the Plan. However, any distribution of rollover/transfer funds from the Plan within the first year will be assessed a $250.00 fee to cover administrative expenses of processing the rollover and distribution.

WHAT ELSE SHOULD I KNOW ABOUT 403(b) TRANSFERS?

AGFinancial must be listed as an approved service provider in your employer's 403(b) written plan prior to transfer.

The account statement must detail the specific sources and related income information. If the statement does not contain the accounting detail requested, AGFinancial will treat all funds received as pre-tax deferral earnings from a 403(b)(7) plan. If all monies received are treated as earnings, this may affect your ability to receive hardship distributions as well as any distributions for Roth and traditional after-tax monies.

403(b)(7) custodial accounts have more legal distribution restrictions than 403(b)(1) annuity and 403(b)(9) church accounts. Transfers from any 403(b) account must retain the same legal distribution restrictions that the original account was required to have had. If the transferring 403(b) type is unknown, it must be treated as a 403(b)(7) custodial account. Additionally, 403(b) plans may restrict distributions differently according to their governing document.
